SEATING POSTURE

We recommend computer users adopt an open-angle sitting position, with knees slightly lower than hips.

Always sit near the back of your seat.

Adjust the lumbar support height so that it fits into the lumbar contour of your back.

Adjust the tilt tension so that when the synchro tilt is released the chair supports your weight in an upright seated position but allows you to lean back easily if you choose.

Sit close to your workstation.

Your feet should be flat on the floor or on a footrest.

Keyboarding and mouse operation should be achieved comfortably without stretching.
